3 Jap Warships, 11 Other Vessels Bagged in Raid

PEARL HARBOR (AP)—A U.S. carrier plane raid on Japanese shipping and facilities in Manila Bay Sunday left 14 ships—including three warships—sunk or damaged, a floating dock destroyed and at least 28 enemy planes destroyed, it was announced last night by Admiral Nimitz. One ship of the U.S. carrier task force was damaged during a Japanese aerial attack.

Japanese broadcasters had said earlier that 800 attacking planes hit the Manila area, and claimed one U.S. battleship was sunk by suicide pilots east of Luzon Island.

Admiral Nimitz said two destroyers in Manila Bay exploded under the U.S. plane attack. While these were not listed as sunk in the communique, they could be termed probables. A light cruiser was left badly damaged.

An estimated 11 cargo ships and others were afloat, and a floating dock was torpedoed.

Russian Says War Goes Unfavorably For Japanese

By DANIEL DE LUCE

MOSCOW (AP)—Col. Ivan Tolchenov, Soviet military authority, said today that the war in the Pacific was developing unfavorably for Japan and recalled to his lecture audience that the Japanese had "attacked and raided the Soviet Union several times."

His listeners included Japanese correspondents and Red Army men. (His address came nine days after Premier Marshal Stalin had declared Japan an "aggressor nation." Russia and Japan are at peace under a non-aggression pact.)

"Japan risked fighting two great powers, the United States and Great Britain, as a consequence of her longtime policy of expansion," Col. Tolchenov said. "Japan has also attacked and raided the Soviet Union several times. We may recall the Mongolian border action by the Japanese in 1939, when they were strongly rebuffed."

ALLIES ON OFFENSIVE

The veteran Red Army officer said the Pacific war was passing the first stage of Japan's well-prepared offensive and now was entering the second stage of the Allied counteroffensive. He declared Japanese sea and air forces were inferior.

"The Japanese fleet has not suffered blows sufficient to paralyze its activity, but its losses will greatly affect its possibilities of resistance," he added. "Important events are ripening under unfavorable circumstances for Japan. Since the American landing in the Philippines, the battles are becoming stiffer."

Extra Cheque For City Staffs Nov. 30

CITY HALL employees, library staff members and school board personnel, including teachers, will receive their 10 per cent wage increase cheques in a lump sum covering the 11 months of this year by Nov. 30, Ald. W. L. Morgan, finance committee chairman, said today.

Arrangements are being made to present the cheques by the end of the month despite difficulties faced in making income tax deductions and other routine factors connected with the scheme.

The net result of the distribution will be that employees receive another full month's cheque.

Type of terrain searchers had to contend with is shown in the picture, taken on the only day during the first week of the search when it didn't rain. Heal was last seen on ridge in background.

Canadian Forces Have Rest Period

LONDON (CP)—Indications are that most of the Canadian units in western Europe and in Italy now are out of the line, resting in preparation for new tasks.

Since Polish forces of the 1st Canadian Army eliminated the last German pocket south of the Maas (Meuse) River in southwest Holland Nov. 9, there have been no reports of activity by Lt. Gen. Crerar's forces. That action was at the southern approaches to the Moerdijk bridge across the Diep.

The last operation in that sector involving Canadian troops was the drive to the Hollandsche Diep at Dinteloord Nov. 5.

The last report of Canadian fighting in Italy was in an Adriatic front dispatch Nov. 10, which reported the capture of Germans in a patrol skirmish in the area of San Stefano, seven miles south of Ravenna.

Andorra Occupied

PARIS (AP)—French gendarmes occupied the little autonomous state of Andorra in the Pyrenees late Tuesday, the foreign office announced today.

A spokesman said Gen. de Gaulle made the decision as ex officio co-Prince of Andorra and that the action was "a preventive measure" to insure security and maintain order throughout the winter months.

Andorra embraces 191 square miles at the French-Spanish frontier on the south slopes of the mountains. Rich iron mines and valuable forests lie in its cold limits. Most of the few thousand inhabitants are shepherds. Maximum length of the country is 17 miles and maximum width is 18.

More Fog Enshrouds Vancouver; 2 Injured

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two persons are in hospital with injuries suffered when an automobile collided with a streetcar during the thick fog which crept over the harbor and city today. Condition of the injured, Mike Basok and Peter Naxymec, both of Vancouver, is reported fairly good.

Streetscars and ferries were delayed by the heavy mist which continued to hang over the city until after noon. On some flights planes have been held up for 12 hours and flights to Victoria were canceled.

Fog banks hung heavily over lower areas in North and West Vancouver, clearing at Caulfields and Horseshoe Bay. Downtown New Westminster was a blur of fog patches, but the weather on the hill was clear and frosty.

Winnipeg Bakers Prepare to Strike

WINNIPEG (CP)—Employees of Winnipeg's 15 bakery plants will go on strike at midnight Saturday, W. T. White, business agent of Canadian Bakery Workers' Union, Local No. 1, announced today. Approximately 500 workers are involved.

Mr. White said strike action had been agreed upon by the workers following refusal of the regional war labor board to approve adjustments in wage scales, bonus payments and working conditions.

"For the last 11 months we have been trying to get adjustments for the bakery workers and have explored all the legal channels in an effort to settle the dispute," Mr. White said. "We have established before Elliott Wilson, chief executive officer of the regional war labor board, our just demands, even showed that wages have been cut, but we have got nowhere."

"We are prepared in the meantime to meet and discuss with the employers the supply of all necessary bread for hospitals and military barracks," Mr. White said.

Canadian Bomb-aimers Dropped 9 of Bombs That Sank Tirpitz

LONDON (CP)—Canadian bomb-aimers released nine of the 29 "earthquake" bombs used last Sunday in the sinking of the German battleship Tirpitz in Norway's Tromsø Fjord, an R.C.A.F. survey showed today.

In addition, nine other Canadians were among the approximately 200 airmen who flew in R.A.F. Lancasters to blast the German navy's last big ship. Another Canadian, Flt. Lt. Johnny Loftus of Toronto, flew as a movie cameraman in an unarmed plane.

Still Deadlocked

CHICAGO (CP)—An all-night job of drafting, and a day of discussion failed to yield a clear break in the deadlock at the International Civil Aviation Conference, but this afternoon some of the broad lines of agreement between the three principal parties had been laid out.

The deadlock is over the degree of power to be given an international aviation body, with the United Kingdom and Canada contending for ample power, and the U.S. for restricted power.

German Army Busy With Courts-Martial

ROME (AP)—Allied headquarters announced today that a captured German order disclosed that court-martial cases had increased from 25 to 150 in one month in the enemy's 362nd Infantry Division operating in Italy. The order, signed by a Maj. Gen. Greiner, directed officers to impress on the troops that "capital punishment is passed on desertion, looting, cowardice and self-mutilation."

Soviets Liquidate Enemy Bridgehead South of Budapest

LONDON (CP)—The Red Army has liquidated the enemy bridgehead on the east bank of the Danube River south of Budapest, and has straightened its lines with advances south and northeast of the besieged Hungarian capital, netting an additional 30 towns, Moscow announced today.

Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's troops, holding fast to their positions within easy medium artillery range of Budapest on the south, spearheaded north and northwest from Monor, and captured Uri and Peter in gains of three to five miles.

Seizure of Solt and Duna Egyhaza, 45 and 42 miles south of Budapest, erased the enemy bridgehead on the east bank of the Danube. The Berlin radio said the Russians hurled three infantry divisions against the Nazis, who withdrew to newly-prepared positions on the west bank.

A Moscow dispatch said 1,200 prisoners were taken in the bridgehead battle, and hundreds more of the enemy drowned in an attempt to flee across the river. Approximately 50,000 Germans and Hungarians have been captured since Malinovsky began his drive on Budapest from southern Hungary last month, it was estimated.

Hungary seemed likely to remain the main theatre of action on the eastern front, the Moscow dispatch added, for there was little hint of any attempt in the near future to break the stalemate in Poland or East Prussia.

Nazis Clamp Tight Hold On Soldiers; Himmler in Charge

LONDON (AP)—The Nazi party, using the name of long silent Hitler, clamped a tighter hold on the retreating German army today.

A new decree ordered all German officers and non-commissioned officers who were members of the Nazi Party to "educate their men in the Nazi sense," both on duty and off duty. Previously, men were required to leave the party during their periods in the armed service.

The decree was broadcast by the Transocean propaganda service.

The London dailies all gave prominent space today to the various Hitler reports. The Times of London declared there no longer seemed any doubt that Heinrich Himmler was the acting leader of Germany, adding that no one had appeared to challenge extension of his powers.

Curiously, the name of Himmler was conspicuously absent from the new decree that "all soldiers are now permitted to take over a function in the (Nazi) party or its branches."

In addition to Hitler it was signed by Hermann Goering—once No. 2 Nazi but himself so long silent that he, too, is now subject to "ill, mad or dead" rumors. Other signatories were Field Marshal Gen. Wilhelm Keitel and Chief of Chancellery Martin Bormann.

DURING HIS 'ILLNESS'

ZURICH (CP-Reuters)—Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler has been appointed commander-in-chief of the defensive forces of Germany "during Hitler's illness," the Swiss newspaper La Suisse, quoting "a well-informed source," said today.

R.C.A.F. Plane Lost With 10 Men Aboard

An R.C.A.F. Canoe flying boat carrying a crew of 10 men was the object of a widespread aerial search today. The flying boat failed to report to its West Coast operational station after being due back from a routine patrol at dusk Tuesday night.

The aerial search began Tuesday night and the Western Air Command reported planes were in the air again today looking for the flying boat.

Yanks Close In On Metz; Take 3 More Forts

By WILLIAM FRYE

LONDON (AP)—British troops in southeastern Holland have smashed across the Noord and Wessem canals, west of Roermond, and established a firm bridgehead while three more of the vaunted forts guarding Metz, 150 miles to the south, fell today as U.S. troops closed to within 1½ miles of the city.

Fort Hubert and Jussy, west of Metz, fell to the U.S. 95th Infantry division, which reached a point two miles from Metz. South of Thionville, Fort Illange and its garrison surrendered.

South of Metz, U.S. troops which captured Forts L'Alame and L'Yser, met stiffening German resistance on the high ridge beyond captured Pouilly. East of that point, other U.S. troops seized Peltres, 2½ miles southeast of Metz.

The German radio said U.S. forces had opened assaults on two more of the great Metz forts—Driant, which the enemy successfully defended two months ago, and Jeanne d'Arc.

Two German counterattacks were repulsed by U.S. troops southeast of Metz—one in the Peltre-Pouilly sector and another in the vicinity of Arrlange, where units of the 6th Armored Division are spearheading attacks beyond the Nied River.

NO SUICIDE SQUAD

Despite signs that the Germans do not plan a suicide stand in Metz, the Berlin radio announced the civilian population of Metz had been ordered evacuated.

Doubling the Allied assault on the west front, troops of the British 2nd Army struck savagely toward the Maas (Meuse) River east of Nederweert Tuesday afternoon. By this morning they had established a firm bridgehead across the Noord and Wessem Canals west of Eindhoven and were expanding the weight of their drive, thinly opposed except for the usual troublesome and extensive minefields.

A field report today said Lt. Gen. Dempsey's troops had gained 4,000 yards on a three-mile front west of Venlo.

OBJECTIVES WON

As the offensive gained momentum, a spokesman at Field Marshal Montgomery's 21st Army group headquarters said all initial objectives had been won, and the enemy had withdrawn from the line of the canals in the Maas bulge.

Meijel, springboard of a savage counterthrust by the enemy two weeks ago, was found abandoned, and only light resistance met the British attacks, led by flame-throwing tanks, as they crossed the Noord Canal near the village of Waatscamp and the Wessem Canal southeast of Weert. The village of Eindhoven was captured.

A 21st Army group spokesman said "the Boche is thinned out," and added that it was possible the enemy had pulled the bulk of his forces behind the Maas River.

On the right flank of the U.S. 3rd Army's attack at Metz, U.S. infantry and armor advancing north of Chateau Salins reached the area of Destrict and Barwonweiler, swinging the left arm of a pincers toward the encirclement of Moerchingen.

GAIN IN VOSGES

Fresh gains were scored also by Franco-U.S. troops of the 6th Army group in the Vosges Mountains and foothills north of the Swiss border. Northeast of Baccarat they advanced approximately two miles against light resistance, and east of Bruyeres the town of Granges-sur-Vologne and several nearby villages were captured as the enemy was forced back more than a mile.

Still farther south, despite snow and mud and the extensive minefields planted by the Germans, limited advances were scored against stiff opposition in the flooded valley of the Doubs River.

The Allied communique reported that weather "severely restricted air operations" in support of the ground attacks.

Pearl Harbor Probe Decision Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Highly-placed Congressional sources expect a decision within three weeks on whether courts-martial or exoneration will result from an army-navy board investigation of the Pearl Harbor attack.

On Dec. 7 the statute of limitations governing prosecutions resulting from negligence in the historic case will expire, unless Congress extends it, as it has done twice before.

Legislation extending the statutory period is awaiting Congressional action, but it may not be called up.

"There will be no need for a further extension," said a usually well-informed source, who withheld use of his name.

The report of the army-navy board that made an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the Jap attack has been completed, and action based on its recommendations will be taken before Dec. 7.

What the board findings are, he did not profess to know. They were labeled secret pending further study when filed last month with the Secretaries of War and Navy.

"However," the informant added, "it is safe to say the report recommends that Rear-Admiral Husband E. Kimmel or Lieut.-Gen. Walter C. Short, or both of them, either be held for court-martial trial or be exonerated."

Esposito Acquitted

VANCOUVER (CP)—Giuseppe Esposito, 64, was acquitted Tuesday night of a murder charge laid in connection with the fatal shooting last Sept. 20 of 24-year-old Kevin Thompson in front of Esposito's home here.

Esposito told the court how three men tried to break down the front door of his home shouting: "Come out, you Dago, and we'll kill you." A few hours earlier the same group of men had wrecked the contents of the downstairs part of the house and had chased Esposito out the back door.

"When the row broke out at the front door, Esposito told the court he got a shotgun and threatened to shoot if the men did not desist.

"I was scared," Esposito said. "I let one shot go."

Thompson, a discharged soldier, died a few minutes later from shotgun wounds.

Escaped German Held at Vancouver; 3 Others Hunted

VANCOUVER (CP)—Capture Tuesday night of Helmut F. Hack, 25-year-old Nazi seaman who escaped from a Gravenhurst, Ont., prisoner-of-war camp, set off a manhunt through Vancouver district in search of three other escaped Germans at large in the Dominion and thought to have made their way to the west coast.

Provincial and city police were on the lookout today for the fugitives and wary citizens who had seen pictures and descriptions of the Germans in city newspapers kept the telephones ringing at police stations throughout the city with reports of suspicious looking characters similar in appearance to the published photographs.

One arrest was made in answer to a telephone tip. A man remarkably like one of the Nazis was taken into custody and finally admitted he was a fugitive from the Escondido, B.C., hospital for the insane.

Hack was arrested following a telephone call from an unidentified man who reported seeing the Nazi in a downtown hotel and recognizing him from his picture in the paper. He escaped last July from the Ontario prison camp along with Friedrich Potrick, 24, and Hans Eultgen, 29, who are still at large.

A fourth German, Oberleutnant Walter Manhardt, 27, of the Nazi air force, escaped from an Ontario camp in August and is also sought in this area.

GIVEN SHELTER

R.C.M.P. officials said they thought the men were being harbored by friends. Patrick Hack and Eultgen are all seamen.

The three men still hunted are the only enemy prisoners now at large in the Dominion, police said.

Police said Hack, a slight blond man, probably had made his trans-continental trip from Gravenhurst by hiding on west-bound freight trains. He might have passed unnoticed in groups of migrant workers on the prairies.

Ottawa Presbytery Scores Drinking Scenes

OTTAWA (CP)—Resolutions adopted at a meeting Tuesday of the Ottawa Presbytery of the United Church of Canada "deplored the apparent growth of the gambling spirit" and says the "increase in the consumption of alcoholic beverages since the war" was tending "to lower moral and spiritual values."

The Presbytery criticized the National Film Board for displaying "disgusting drinking scenes" in some of its pictures and asked the board, delete all drinking scenes from its films or label them some way so that prospective users of the films would know which contained "objectionable" scenes.

Dr. H. W. Avison said the ministers should follow the lead of the Women's Missionary Societies in discouraging church raffles.

"Until we clear our own skirts, we cannot talk about the race-track," said Rev. John MacAskill.

Airman Believed Lost in Big Canyon

Belief that LAC. Leslie Heal, 26-year-old airman from Patricia Bay, perished in a wild canyon on Lens Creek, said to be 1,700 feet deep, was put forward today.

Bill Palliser, who was staying at his cabin at Lake Cowichan while on sick leave from the B.C. Telephone Co. here, and who assisted in the search for several days, returned to Victoria Tuesday night with pictures and details of the search. He said searchers had followed footprints and broken twigs, which they were satisfied were those of young Heal, to the canyon.

A party of eight experienced woodsmen equipped with 200 feet of rope and provisions for four days, is now in the area, probing the depths of the canyon to find the airman. It is felt there is little or no chance now that Heal, who was missed Nov. 5 on a hunting expedition with two companions, will be found alive.

Footprints believed to be those of Heal were found last week by a party of 20 searchers who struck out from the base camp at Lens Creek, three miles from the old Victoria Lumber Co. Ltd. Camp 10. The party was directed by Rex Hayes, game warden at Duncan.

PARTIES JOIN

After forcing their way for four and a half hours through the heavy, rain-soaked undergrowth, the Hayes party joined with a second party headed by Cpl. J. Henry, B.C. Police officer at Duncan, and composed of Jim Braier, superintendent of the Malahat Logging Co., Port Renfrew; Wes Harper, carpenter for the company, and John Hemmington, superintendent for the Hemmington Logging Co., Port Renfrew.

Both parties found footprints leading down one of the branches of Lens Creek, which flows into the San Juan River. Mouth of the San Juan is at Port San Juan on the west coast.

Cpl. Henry's party, joined by Tod Palliser of the Stoltz Lumber Co., Skutz Falls, and Red Armstrong, truck driver for the Meek Creek Logging Co., then traced the footprints and broken twigs to the Lens Creek canyon, which is two miles long. Pushing on, they reached Port Renfrew on the west coast after spending a night in the woods. Their only food during the two-day trip was one and a half squares of chocolate.

PARTY IN CANYON

The party now in the canyon area is headed by Constable J. Gibault, Sidney. Other members are John Olsen, cougar hunter from Lake Cowichan, who has a trap line on Lens Creek; Vic Heal, Glen Merriman, Sam Marrs, Jack Roach, Flt.-Sgt. Don Vella-cott and Sgt. Wallace Buchanan, R.C.A.F.

The party is not expected to return to Lake Cowichan until Thursday, unless the search is successful.

During the height of the search last week, when more than 200 persons joined in combing the slope of an unnamed mountain near Camp 10 where Heal was last seen, two-way radios and an aircraft were used.

The search was hampered by heavy rains so that the aircraft was only able to participate one day. High water in Lens Creek held up a party of 168 men. The road into Lens Creek from Camp 10 was flooded with two feet of water.

OTTAWA (CP)—On the basis of figures received to date, Canada's $1,300,000,000 7th Victory Loan was over-subscribed by $167,637,600 and reports of further subscriptions are awaited, the War Finance Committee reported today.

British Across Montone River On Highway to Bologna

By LYNN HEINGERLING
ROME (AP)—British 8th Army forces have crossed the Montone River more than two miles northwest of Forlì on the highway to Bologna, Allied headquarters announced today.

In the Apennine foothills to the south the Germans made a slight withdrawal. It was believed they would attempt to hold positions along the canalized river Cosina, which the highway crosses just west of the Montone.

The crossing of the Montone represented a widening advance by the 8th Army along the Po Valley toward Faenza, next major calamity on the highway.

Faenza now lies only six miles beyond forward British units.

British troops have occupied the tiny hamlet of Villa Grappa.

The Germans are withdrawing along the highway sector as pressure on both flanks has been intensified and contact has been broken off with the German rear-guard on the main route skirting the edge of the Po Valley.

There was rainfall on most of the Italian front and snow thickened the winter blanket on high ground south of Bologna. The situation on the Allied 5th Army front changed little.

Indian troops captured Monte San Bartolo, which gives observation over the road approaching Modigliana, two miles farther northeast.

Allied Divisions Linked Up in Burma

KANDY, Ceylon (CP-Reuters)—Indian and East African divisions maintaining their drives west of the Chindwin River in Burma have linked up northwest of Kalemvo, key Japanese communication centre guarding the Chindwin valley, one of the routes leading south to Mandalay. It was announced today.

East African forces attacking down the Kabaw and Kale valleys are encountering strong resistance six miles north of the town. The main body of the 5th Indian Division, poised eight miles west of Kalemvo, has cleared resistance east of the stockades of the road from Tiddim.

HEAVY FIGHTING AHEAD

CANADA'S PARLIAMENTARIANS WHO are about to reassemble at Ottawa to discuss the important question of reinforcements for our fighting forces in Europe will have noted Mr. Churchill's categorical assertion in the House of Commons today that extremely heavy fighting "will certainly last for a good long time." On at least two occasions recently the British Prime Minister has talked about the war against Germany consuming several months of 1945, or suggesting on another that spring or early summer might bring victory over Hitler's Reich, but no longer is there any suggestion of a sudden collapse of the Wehrmacht in either theatre of war.

Nothing in the continental European battle scene, however, should give cause for the least pessimism; on the contrary, latest developments indicate clearly that the Nazi general staff will soon learn how invincible its western defences really are. The inexorable hacking to which General Patton's army has subjected Metz and its strongly-fortified environs is obviously a vital part of the grand plan which General Eisenhower intends to unfold as soon as he has solved his transportation problem. The newest operation which General Dempsey's 2nd British Army launched before dawn yesterday morning, moreover, adds to the belief that the vast dock and harbor facilities of the great port of Antwerp are beginning to play their part in the prelude to the all-out assault on "Festung Deutschland."

Although it is too early to indulge in predictions on the ultimate success of the attack from eastern Holland, we have been assured by Field Marshal Montgomery that it is going according to plan, while its substantial advance toward the German frontier can be taken as a promising augury. But if there are setbacks and disappointments, it will be well to remember what Mr. Churchill has just told the House of Commons—after subjecting the western battlefronts to a thorough personal inspection.

From the more intimate understanding of the general Allied position on the whole of the western front which the public now has it is plain to see why the optimistic expectations of a few weeks ago did not materialize to their fullest extent. Whether the leaders of the United Nations were convinced that Hitler's Reich would collapse by the end of October or not, failure to produce more far-reaching results cannot reasonably be attributed to any basic alteration in high strategy. The extremely tough and intricate job assigned to the Canadians and troops from the United Kingdom in Holland has assumed new significance in its victorious conclusion. It pointedly reminds us that the whole problem of transportation and supply proved to be a good deal more difficult than appeared likely, say, at the beginning of September when the Canadian and British Prime Ministers and President Roosevelt were conferring at Quebec.

With the full use of Antwerp now seemingly assured, however, it is reasonable to assume that the handicap to the movement of supplies—occasioned largely by the ruin of French railroads and culverts, and the wreckage of French rolling stock through months of essential bombings—soon will become a problem of the past. Nor should it be forgotten, in the event of a too literal interpretation of the warning of "extremely heavy fighting for a good long time," that Mr. Churchill always has tempered his cautious allusions to the date of Germany's defeat with the admission that expert military commanders in the best position to know and understand all the circumstances are more optimistic as to the time element.

CANADA'S ASIATIC WAR

AT LEAST ONE OF THE DECISIONS taken at the second Quebec conference two months ago—at which Mr. Mackenzie King was both host and conferee—was Canada's offer to bear its full share in the war against Japan. Readily in agreement with this proposal, of course, were Mr. Churchill and Mr. Roosevelt, the President observing that he was looking forward to "having the Dominion of Canada take part in that war... we have been fighting alongside Canadians—we will keep on alongside of them all the way across the Pacific."

So far the details of this country's proposed participation have been a well-guarded secret, but there is no doubt that Canada's role will be active. During the debate on foreign policy in the House of Commons on August 11, 1944, Mr. King said:

"I would make it perfectly clear that the policy of the government is to see that our appropriate part is taken in the war against Japan to the very close of the war."

In view of the foregoing statement, plus its amplification at the Quebec conference, it can be assumed that during the debate on the "reinforcements issue" which the emergent sittings of the House of Commons will produce, the question of supplies of men and material for Canada's share in the war against Japan will undoubtedly come up for discussion. Mr. King naturally will desire to take what steps are necessary to make good the promise he obviously means to implement. There will be plenty of room for our Home Defence drafts in the Allied Asiatic armies of liberation.

WALL STREET AND F.D.R.

ONE SOMEWHAT CURIOUS ANOMALY in the recent elections in the United States might have started Old Bull Moose Theodore Roosevelt. It was an enlightening speech broadcast by Mr. Averill Harriman, chairman of the Union Pacific Railway, Wall Street banker, and industrialist. He succeeded to the railway empire of his father whose contests with the late James J. Hill and the Morgans always provided financial reporters of those days with colorful and personal material. Before it was unscrambled, Standard Oil was said to be backing Harriman, and the culmination of the battle occurred in Northern Pacific Securities which Hill had "cornered" and Harriman sold short.

The present Harriman, be it noted, has been Mr. Roosevelt's personal representative in Russia and Britain—and he was lately home from the Soviet Union after consultations with Mr. Churchill and Marshal Stalin in the Kremlin. He has sat in at the conferences at Teheran, Cairo, Algiers and in the United States when the British Prime Minister has met the President. And his broadcast just before 50,000,000 Americans went to the polls gave the facts without any of the ordinary political embroidery—facts that usually have been revealed some months after the conferences at which plans were laid down had matured and materialized. As given by Mr. Harriman, incidentally, they must have influenced some votes. It is often forgotten, too, that Mr. Edward Stettinius Jr., the Undersecretary of State, is another son of Wall Street, his father having been a Morgan partner.

In other words, if Mr. Dewey was supported by Wall Street, as the Republican Party is usually supposed to be supported, neither Mr. Harriman nor Mr. Stettinius was following tradition. And it would be interesting to take a poll of the bankers of "the Street" who supported the G.O.P. candidate. As they are primarily in international trade—which not even the wealthy United States can do without—they probably forgot their presumed traditional habits and voted for the President.

WICKED TALK

RUMORS HAVE BEEN CIRCULATED throughout this province that wounded and maimed men are brought back from the battlefronts in a terrible condition and are kept under secret guard in military hospitals and other establishments. Found guilty of furthering such malicious and wholly unjustified reports, a Canadian soldier was recently arrested and court-martialed in Vancouver—a case that should dissuade others from following his example.

Apart from the agony of mind such rumors must occasion those who have loved ones fighting overseas, and who may for the moment not realize that such fulminations are the product either of the imagination or a streak of viciousness, all the evidence on the record proves how magnificently and how speedily expert care has been lavished on the wounded. Indeed, one of the epic achievements of this war, especially as compared with other wars—even the first Great War—has been the almost miraculous work of the medical services. From radio broadcasts, from public speeches of high-ranking officers and competent observers, hundreds of worried families have derived much consolation from accounts of the manner in which modern science and the new drugs have substantially reduced the mortality rate among the wounded.

One can only hope, therefore, that the example made in the case of the Vancouver soldier—which, after all, would add up to a serious reflection on the military medical authorities and the Red Cross if his complaint had been based on fact instead of fiction—will set all minds at rest.

SINGAPORE AND AFTER

WHEN THE WAR IN EUROPE IS OVER, and the United Nations swing their might into the Pacific to accelerate the destruction of the Japanese, one of the problems attending re-occupation of territories the Nipponese have over-run will revolve around Singapore and the Malay States.

It would be a happy solution if the Allies could extend to the native peoples there the same treatment the United States has accorded liberated sections of the Philippines. Unfortunately, conditions disclosed at the fall of Singapore would indicate that those peoples are unprepared to assume the duties of responsible government accorded those in the more favored islands.

Nor can there be any return to the status quo. The results of the Japanese invasion of the peninsula leading to the collapse of the erstwhile Pacific bastion disclosed a state of affairs which could not be tolerated by nations which have pledged themselves to the Atlantic Charter and other documents of the fuller life. There can be little room for self-interest and superior racism—so graphically described by correspondents who saw "impregnable" Singapore stagger and fall under the last round of gin slings—when the brown curtain of Japanese dominance is raised from that territory.

The powers who decide the fate of the Malay States must see its native people are accorded a way of life worth maintaining and, if necessary, worth fighting for, lest that naturally rich country again become an over-ripe plum ready to fall to the first intruder.

NOTES

If free people distrust the rich and successful, they must inevitably be served by small-fry incompetents.

Nature arranges things. If he leaves the bathroom in a mess, he usually has a wife who doesn't notice it.

A henpecked man is one whose wife insists upon running everything and then bawls him out for making her bear the burdens.

Tomorrow's World

By GRANT DEXTER
AS THE WAR enters the final phase, it is clear that the very word "reconstruction" evokes conflicting emotions in the minds of most people—gratitude, happiness, doubt, cynicism, fear. How different to the sheer elation of November, 1918!

This time, when organized resistance ends in Germany, many will be haunted by the memories of the interwar years—the depression of 1920 which engulfed western agriculture in an avalanche of debt; the ragged early twenties; the boom which led, in 1930, to the greatest of all depressions; the fumbling, uncertain efforts to achieve an effective world organization and keep the peace of the world.

It was Walt Whitman, writing of the first great modern war, who spoke of "the sisters Death and Night incessantly softly washing again and ever again this solid world."

Everyone agrees today that the tragedy of the thirties must never again occur; that there must be no World War III. But back of their assertions there is deep skepticism—"How can we be certain?" This, no doubt, explains why every rumor of the end of the war in Europe sends the markets down.

BEARING ALL THIS in mind, it may be helpful to discuss reconstruction. How can the fears which torment people be banished? How can the hopes for a better world be realized? What has been done? What lines of approach are now visible?

The most common definition, apart from world security, of what is most desired, is full employment. This, however, is a poor definition. What, in fact, is wanted is the greatest possible production of required goods and services. The aim, as Sir William Beveridge has put it, is not the making of work for persons who, otherwise, would be unemployed. If this were all, then the speediest solution would be to scrap our machines, retire our scientists, make the exercise of individual initiative a crime. "It would be a case of back to the pre-machine age."

What people mean when they speak of full employment is the development of our resources in men, plant and material so as to obtain directly and by trade a high and advancing standard of living.

IT IS EVIDENT, then, that the cries and counter-cries of various groups and parties are confusing. The C.C.F. asserts, stridently, that if only we change the ownership of everything, substitute state for private ownership, there will be good times always. The Social Crediters and other money cranks affirm that if only we would print unlimited quantities of new dollar bills and give them to all and sundry, heaven would be born on earth. And over against the socialists, the free enterprise group argues that if only the state would clear out and give private enterprise undisputed control of everything, unemployment would vanish.

These conflicting and extreme points of view obscure the problem. The socialists, on the one hand, and the extreme individualists on the other, are quarrelling not about what is to be done, but the way of going about it—the technique. The assumption by the state of ownership of productive plant would not solve any existing problem. All the conflicts—labor seeking higher rewards, farmers a greater share of the national income, and so on—would remain. Instead of being economic questions to be decided largely by the market, the price system, they would become political questions to be decided by votes and influence. Like-wise with the banishment of the state from business. Stout manufacturers who talk this way should not be taken too seriously. How many of them recognize tariffs as a state intervention and, incidentally, of a highly undesirable kind? Do these advocates believe that the state should retire from the postal service, the national railways, the various boards of control like the railway commission, the grain commission, the hydro power field, etc? Certainly not.

BOTH THESE CONTENTIOUS factions—because they are extreme—are an obstacle to clear thought and constructive action. There could be, for example, no greater misfortune than that a socialist-minded party like the C.C.F. should take office at this critical time and, instead of tackling the real problems of reconstruction, become involved in a row over the nationalization of some part of the existing plant like the C.P.R.

All these groups, and more particularly the socialists, base their appeals upon fear. Unless their particular cure-all is accepted, the miseries so vividly remembered will return. It is suggested, therefore, that the first essential to clear thinking about reconstruction is to reject the proposition that success turns on a choice between black and white alternatives. It is not a case of either-or. With respect to socialism, it is obvious that the area of state activity has been increasing for many generations. There is no reason to suppose it is going to cease to do so. Rather, the problem is one of readjusting from time to time and in the light of changing conditions, the activities of state and private activity. The considerations should not be theoretical or academic, but practical and common sense.

The peril in the extremist approach and in the kind of fear-haunted campaign being carried on is real. In this great venture there will be small hope of success if we are concerned chiefly with bandaging old sores, if we are hypnotized by dread of unemployment. No one can run a good race if he continually is looking back over his shoulder.

The first need, then, is positive, not negative, goals; not defence but attack; not fear, but faith.

NO LONGER THE PRECIOUS METAL

From Halifax Herald
Gold isn't value. It has been made by decree merely to represent value. And in the years after this war, the world is going to require something more than palliatives of this description to get at the roots of the real economic problems of mankind's existence, comfort and prosperity. It was written by a "financial expert" in this Dominion in 1931 that countries adopting the Gold Standard "have adhered to it except when compelled to abandon it temporarily on account of wars and financial crises." It looked like economic gospel then: it looks absurd today. The decision of the British government never to return to the Gold Standard as such disposed once and for all of the Gold propaganda that has been revived with the approach of victory in Europe.

A LESSON LEARNED

From Chatham News
A Californian, touring the western provinces, says Canada is a great country—but is lacking in that it "does not blow its own horn." California has given all the world an object lesson in this activity, having carried it to its highest pitch. In many ways the results have been very excellent indeed, but in some other ways they have been little short of disastrous. When subdivision sidewalks stretch across the empty sands for miles, somebody begins to pay taxes and the large cities begin to learn over again the lesson which the western Canadian cities learned as a result of the 1912 boom.

MISLEADING FIGURES

From New York Times
It cannot be too often pointed out that such statistics (of strikes in the U.S.) are essentially meaningless, not only because they fail to take into consideration the amount of indirect idleness that a strike involves but because they ignore how vital the particular production may be that is brought to a halt. The value of the product of the entire soft coal industry of the United States, to cite but one example, amounts to only 1 per cent of the national income. If a strike stopped it for an entire year the statistics might show that there were no strikes in 99 per cent of industry. But everyone knows that such a strike would bring practically our entire war production to a halt in a few months.

C.P.R.'S VOLUNTARY CONCESSION

From Toronto Globe and Mail
It has been the fashion in certain quarters to portray the Canadian Pacific Railway as a big, bad wolf. The portrait is, of course, fantastic, as one example shows. During the drought and depression years this company wrote off some $12,700,000 owing to it in interest payments by the farmers of Saskatchewan who had purchased land from the railway corporation. Moreover, a system of double credit, whereby a purchaser of land was credited with $2 for every $1 he paid to the company on account of interest in arrears under his contract, has been in force for some years. Further, where soil erosion or other natural deterioration in the productive quality of the lands occurred, price adjustment on the principal have been made to an aggregate amount of $8,614,418. And this at a time when holders of common stock of the C.P.R. were going without dividends, while savings bank depositors were drawing good interest.

In a word, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company returned to its farmer debtors in the one province more than $20,000,000 to help them meet their obligations. This was done without blare of trumpets, and without complaint that the company and its shareholders were not getting their just due.

Now that the enemy has gone, half our country rises to accuse the other half.—Jerome Tharaud, member French Academy.

Women's Shoes Scarce in London

LONDON (CP)—The great shoe hunt is on. From one store to another, up one street and down the next, London women are searching for their winter footwear. And they're not having much luck.

There are several reasons for what manufacturers say is becoming "the greatest shortage of civilian footwear production the war has yet engendered."

Lack of labor and material head the list, but two other reasons of more recent vintage are the switchover of some firms to the manufacture of demobilization footwear and the partial allocation of output to relief abroad. Then, too, children's shoes are being given priority, although this has not yet been noticeable in the stores.

Back around September a girl in the service decided to buy a pair of shoes for civilian wear. She went to her usual shop and after half hour's queuing squeezed through the door only to find the quota for the day had been reached.

As a servicewoman she had only one day a week she could shop, so the next week she tried again and this time found the store "right out" of tan shoes, the color she wanted.

This went on for six weeks and took the servicewoman to some dozen stores. She gave up the idea of tan, decided to settle for brown instead, but it was still no use.

Then, at the end of October, she found what she wanted, dainty tan shoes. The price was $18, the clerk couldn't promise anything but ruin if they were worn in wet weather. But they were shoes. So she bought them.

Sum of $10 was voted for the fund, which has an objective of £100,000 to provide an international training centre for Guides. Mrs. G. D. Tyson exhibited a large box of children's clothing made by the Guides for British children.

Miss Winona Worsley, captain of Gonzales Company, reported Guides and Brownies of East District will have a concert and sale of work in St. Mary's Hall. Mrs. G. Lillie, badge convener, has arranged for examinations for 88 badges. Mrs. R. A. Wil-

Britain Cannot Spare Last Surviving Sons

LONDON (CP)—Deputy Prime Minister Attlee told the House of Commons Tuesday Britain's manpower problems made it impossible to assign to non-operational duty the last surviving son in a family in which there had been one or more casualties. Such a plan was announced recently in the United States.

For Quick Cough Relief, Try This Home Mixture

Splendid Results, Saves Money, Easily Mixed.
You'll be surprised how quickly and easily you can soothe a bad winter cough, when you try this well known recipe. It gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money and you'll find it very pleasant and dependable, for real relief. Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed—no trouble at all. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (obtained from any drugist) into a 16 oz. bottle. Add your syrup and you have 16 ounces of medicine that will surprise you by its quick action. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it. This home mixture takes right hold of a severe cough. For real results, you'll say it's splendid. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and quickly eases soreness and difficult breathing. Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its soothing effect on throat membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

CHINESE ART EXHIBIT OPENS THURSDAY

Vancouver Island Region of the Federation of Canadian Artists will sponsor an exhibition of Chinese paintings by Professor Chang Shu-chi, to be opened by Miss Sara Spencer in David Spencer's Art Gallery Thursday afternoon.

Believed by the federation to be the first exhibition of Chinese art shown in Victoria, it will be open until Nov. 24.

The paintings, part of a bonded shipment, are not for sale, and it was only through the intervention of the National Gallery in Ottawa that the Vancouver Island Region of the federation was able to obtain permission to bring the exhibition to Victoria. Prof. Chang has, however, consented to reproduce any of the pictures to order.

Boston Shows Power In Beating Chicago

Art Ross' revamped Boston Bruins, who early this season lacked the zip and scoring punch they were famous for in previous National Hockey League campaigns, may have found the answer to their problems.

At any rate, the Boston Club moved into sole possession of fourth place in the N.H.L. Tuesday night by outscoring Paul Thompson's Chicago Black Hawks 7 to 5, when they opened their 21st home season before 13,500 fans at Boston Gardens.

All receipts of the match were turned over to the disabled war veterans' fund of Boston.

Tonight, the league-leading Toronto Maple Leafs meet third-place Detroit Red Wings at Toronto. Leafs, who for years have had difficulty getting the best of the Wings, will make a determined bid for victory to make up for the 4 to 2 defeat handed them by the Wings at Detroit last Sunday. The loss was Toronto's first in seven starts and the win, Detroit's third.

FORGIE TOP SCORER

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Unleashing a scoring spree of four goals and five assists during the last week, Tom Forgie, Hershey ace, jumped to the top of the American Hockey League's individual scoring race with a total of 16 points.

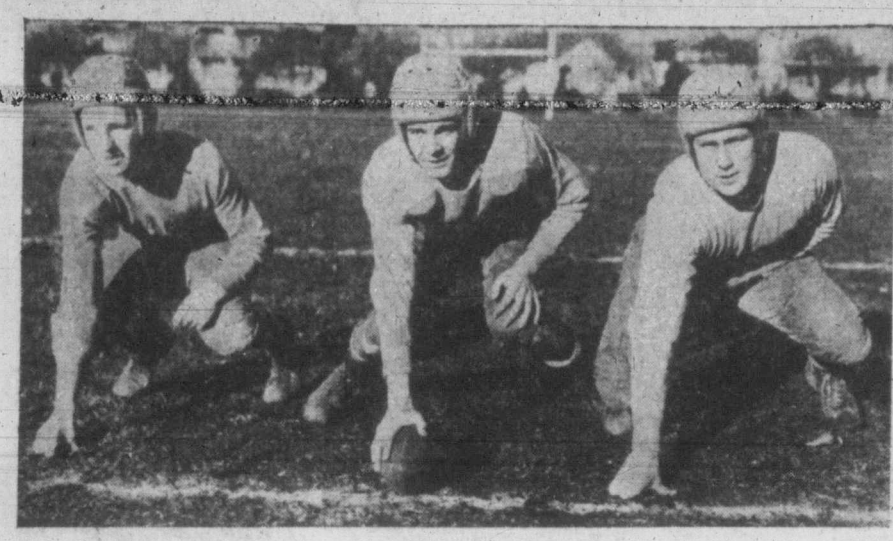

Forgie replaced Wendell Jamieson of Pittsburgh, former leader.

Dandurand Back in Hockey Picture

SYD THOMAS
TORONTO (CP)—Return of an old familiar name to the hockey wars in Montreal was forecast with the announcement Leo Dandurand had been named honorary vice-president of the Nationale Hockey Club, which is planning a comeback on its 50th birthday, reports Lloyd McGowan in the Montreal Star. . . . The Nationales used to be a force to be reckoned with in hockey and lacrosse, and such past greats as Newsy Lalonde, Joe Cattarino, Didier Pitre and Jack Laviolette wielded the gutted stick with them. . . . Nationales have a junior team lined up this winter, and plan to get back into the senior hockey field soon after a lapse of 20 years. . . . That will give the French-Canadians from East Montreal a voice in the puck forum.

They got the word about Sweeney Schirmer, this season's "rookie of the year." Crossing the international border recently, an immigration officer looked interested when he heard Schirmer's name, then brightened: "Oh, yes, you're the new rookie doing all that early scoring. Keep it up, and you're a clinch to win the rookie award." Sweeney figures it really would be something to cop the ducat again. He nailed it once, back in 1934-35 with New York Americans.

BIRTH DEPARTMENT
From Elmer (Montreal Herald) Ferguson: "New York Rangers' home games are starting now at 8:30 instead of 8:45. . . . We almost remarked that Rangers were starting to play hockey at 8:30. Well, that's where life begins, isn't it?"

SET FOR INTERNATIONAL GRID BATTLE—Victoria's Canadian football players are all keyed up over Saturday's clash with Blaine College at Athletic Park, starting at 2:30. The game will be played under United States rules. The Blaine squad of huskies, undefeated this season, are handled by Coach J. O. Tidwell, formerly of Duke University. In the above picture are three stars from St. Louis College who will appear on line-up of the Victoria Combines. From left to right: Ted O'Brien, Murray Scotney and Gordon Brown.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

WHEN VICTORIA'S CRIMSON TIDE makes its next appearance in the McKechnie Cup intercity rugby series against Varsity on the mainland there will be a little extra rivalry associated with the match. The local reps will go up against a squad coached by a former Victorian in the person of Dan Doswell. Last season Doswell coached the Tide to a smashing triumph in British Columbia's number one rugby competition but this season is on the opposite side of the fence. I don't know whether or not Doswell has had time to become an out and out Vancouverite but don't ever think he wouldn't like to lead his students to a triumph over the local reps. Doswell has a mighty smooth bunch of rugby players to work with and the Victoria players and officials look for Varsity to provide the toughest competition of the series.

CAMPBELL FORBES, head coach of the Crimson Tide, was pretty well satisfied with the team in its first showing against Vancouver Reps Saturday. "The team suffered from lack of experience which is not surprising when one realizes 12 of the players were participating in McKechnie Cup competition for the first time," Forbes said. The coach led me to believe he plans on at least one change in the local backfield before the club's engagement with Varsity. "The man I figure on replacing was definitely too slow starting against Vancouver," he said.

WHEN THE Victoria Machinery Depot football team took the field for Sunday's match against the Navy, missing from its line-up was Scotty Robinson. Seems the veteran forward has decided to hang up his shoes. Although not an old-timer from the viewpoint of age Robinson has been playing first division football a long time. It is a good few years since Scotty first made his appearance in the senior circuit as a member of the Victoria West. Always a keen student of the game Robinson turned in some great performances with the greenhorns during which time he played just about every position on the front line. As a matter of fact I honestly believe the Wests will always be his number one interest in the soccer world, although in recent seasons he has performed with the shipyarders.

TALKING to Robinson on the sidelines Sunday he told me his retirement from active competition was not as the result of any snap decision. "I should never have started playing this season with my legs in the condition they are and would have stayed out of action if it had not been that the V.M.D. team was up against it for players," he said. "I am perfectly satisfied to be a spectator now and let some of these enthusiastic youngsters take over." Robinson then went on to tell me about his recent trip to Seattle where he watched a football team composed of Italian prisoners of war perform. "They showed a word of speed and lots of ball control but lacked shooting power," Robinson said. "One of the strangest features of the match was when the Italians took exception to a call by the referee and started protesting in their native tongue along with a lot of throwing their hands around as they ganged up on the official."

Luke Hamlin Will Play With Toronto

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Luke (Hot Potato) Hamlin, 39-year-old highlander who won six and lost 12 with Philadelphia athletics last season, has been traded to Toronto of the International League. Connie Mack announced Tuesday.

Hamlin returns to the Maple Leafs as part payment for Luther Knerr, young hurler, who comes up with the A's next season.

Mack also disclosed that the A's have completed final arrangements to use Toronto as a farm next year. The Leafs formerly worked with Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League.

Jack Doyle Loses Action in Court

DUBLIN (CP)—Jack Doyle, Eire's singing boxer, lost another "fight" Monday when he was successfully sued at the high court here for £750 (about $3,775) alleged advance payment for a Tommy Farr-Doyle contest which did not take place.

"Winner" of the fight was John Patrick Muldoon, boxing promoter. Doyle's defence was that because he was adjudged a bankrupt before an English court, Muldoon could not take further proceedings other than in a bankruptcy court.

Justice Maguire gave judgment for Muldoon for the full amount with costs.

CARPET BOWLING
The last day for filing entries in the Capital City and District Carpet Bowling League is Nov. 20. Entries should be filed with the secretary of the league on or before that date.

JUVENILE SOCCER
Playing in the first division of the juvenile football league, Oak Bay defeated Esquimalt 2 to 0. The Bays are undefeated to date. Latham and Richards scored the goals.

Bill Cowley Now In Three-Way Tie For Scoring Lead

Bill Cowley of Boston collected four points as Bruins defeated Chicago last night 7 to 5. Cowley now is in a three-way tie for first place among N.H.L. scorers with Sweeney Schirmer and Gus Bodnar of Toronto Leafs. C. Smith's three points for Hawks gave him a tie for seventh place with Modere Bruneteau, Detroit. Other leaders were idle.

The leaders follow:

	G.	A.	P.
Schirmer, Toronto	5	5	15
Cowley, Boston	5	10	15
Bodnar, Toronto	5	11	15
Carr, Toronto	4	1	11

Nova's Manager Must Return $500 Advance

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A demand that Frank Pacassi, ex-manager of heavyweight Lou Nova, return $500 advanced as expense money for a fight here "or face charges" was sent Tuesday by the Portland Boxing Commission.

Promoter Joe Waterman said an earlier request for the money's return had not been answered. Nova, Van Nuys, Calif., fighter had advised Waterman from New York City that he had broken a finger and could not fight Joe Kahut, Woodburn, Ore., light heavyweight, on Nov. 24.

Pacassi said that he and Nova had split up and that Jimmy Johnston was the Californian's new manager, Waterman reported.

Boston Braves Put Out Cash to Get 12 New Performers

NEW YORK (AP)—Money in the bank didn't mean a thing when the new owners of the sixth-place Boston Braves tried to get player help last summer but the bulging cheque books of the three contractors has proved mighty handy in lining up 12 brand new performers for 1945, more than any other major league club.

Prize package of President Bob Quinn's minor league shopping tour may be the second base combination of Tommy Nelson and Dick Culler, purchased from the Milwaukee Brewers late in the campaign.

Culler, a shortstop, hit .308 in the association although he missed in an earlier trial with Chicago White Sox. - He was able to steal 19 bases.

Nelson was close behind his partner, boasting a .303 mark and 20 home runs.

Infielder Tony York should fit into the Coleman scheme of things somewhere around the inner defence that was shaky after Connie Ryan went into the service in July. York, who can play short or third was picked up at the waiver price from Chicago Cubs.

First base will get new coverage in either Joe Mack, a veteran to hit .287 for Columbus, or Vince Shupe, a .340 socker for Del Bis sonette at the Brave's Hartford, Conn., pennant-winning farm in the Eastern League.

All-Star Services Gridiron Squad Named in East

TORONTO (CP)—The close race between Toronto Navy Bulldogs and Hagersville R.C.A.F. Flying Tigers in the Ontario Armed services League's maiden season set the pattern today for its first all-star team chosen for the Canadian Press by eight coaches and sports writers around the circuit.

The champion Navy team and the Tigers each won four of their six games during the league's regular schedule and each placed four men on the all-star team. The Camp Borden R.C.A.F. Hurricanes who won three games have three players on the mythical squad. The St. Thomas Hornets, who failed to win a game all season, have one all-star player—LAC Ray (Moon) Mullins, who scored 16 of his team's 18 points during the season.

The teams follow:

Flying wing—Sgt. Doug Pyzer, Camp Borden.
Half—L.S. Tom Waldon, Navy.
Half—LAC Ray Mullins, St. Thomas.
Half (secondary defence)—LAC Doug Smylie, Hagersville.
Quarterback—L.S. Annis Stukus, Navy.
Snap—FO. Jake Gaudaur, Camp Borden.
Inside—L.S. Hank McMahon, Navy.
Inside—Cpl. Fred Lamoureux, Hagersville.
Middle—Fit. Lt. Mike Ozarko, Camp Borden.
Middle—FO. Al Langford, Hagersville.
Outside—Sgt. Dick Groom, Hagersville.
Outside—L.S. Al Upper, Navy.
Stukus, leading scorer in the league with 44 points during the regular season, was almost a unanimous choice for quarterback.

Jack Adams Thinks Dutton Man for Job

WELLAND, Ont. (CP)—Jack Adams, manager of the Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League, said Tuesday night he believes that Merv (Red) Dutton of Calgary is such a suitable candidate for the permanent presidency of the N.H.L. that the league "is fortunate to have his services at its disposal."

(Dutton has been acting president of the N.H.L. since the death of Frank Calder. Some time ago he said he would not accept the presidency if offered to him.)

"What's more," the Red Wing pilot told the annual banquet of the Welland Civic Athletic Commission, "he's a decorated hero of the First Great War and has lost two sons in the present conflict." He said James Norris, owner of the Detroit club, and he "believe that no other candidate for the job has his (Dutton's) qualifications."

Shamlock Signs With Washington Ice Club

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Vancouver, Wash., Vans, celebrities in the Pacific Coast Hockey League, have a new player-manager. He is Eddie Shamlock, named Tuesday to replace Johnny Ballard, who immediately was signed by manager Jimmy Ward of the Portland Eagles.

Shamlock, who will play centre for the Vans, performed last season with the Vancouver, B.C., Maple Leafs and early this year with the Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League.

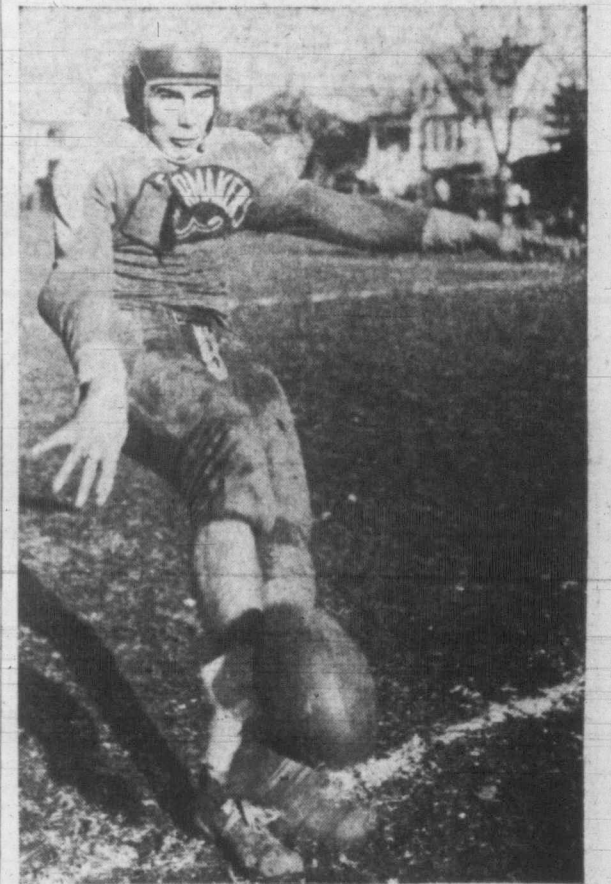

The loop-leading Seattle Ironmen will face the Vans in Portland next Sunday, while the Eagles travel to Seattle to meet the Stars.

Joe Louis Scores First Punch Kayo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Sgt. Joe Louis, world heavyweight champion, knocked out Johnny Davis, 190, Brooklyn, with the first punch from his right hand in the first round Tuesday night before 7,107 fans in Memorial Auditorium.

Louis, weighing 205, dropped Davis at the 53-second mark in the scheduled fourth-round bout. The Brooklyn boy didn't touch the champion.

This serious faced lad putting the leather to the ball with much gusto is Len Scott, one of the smartest players in the local circuit. Big and tough he will prove a hard man for Blaine to stop. He is a member of the Boilermakers.

Canada's most powerful warship, the 8,000-ton cruiser Uganda, newly-reconditioned and commissioned for sea, recently was transferred from the Royal Navy to the Royal Canadian Navy at an impressive ceremony at Halifax, N.S. First of two cruisers for this country's fast-growing navy, H.M.C.S. Uganda is 549 feet in length, mounts nine six-inch guns, six 21-inch torpedo tubes and the latest in anti-aircraft equipment. Capt. E. R. Mainguy's wife was the former Marquitta Nichol, daughter of the late Hon. Walter Nichol, former Lieutenant-Governor of B.C., and Mrs. Nichol, 914 St.
Charles Street. Navy Minister Angus Macdonald has announced that the Uganda will be joined by at least one other cruiser and several aircraft carriers. The Uganda, which has won battle honors already, will retain her name for that reason, but other ships will be named after Canadian provinces.

Believes Mackenzie King
Conscientious in Stand

Belief that Prime Minister Mackenzie King is conscientious and sincere in his attitude on the present reinforcement crisis and would not play politics with men's lives was expressed by Hon. E.
T. Kenney, Minister of Lands, when he addressed annual meeting of Saanich Liberal Association in Victoria Liberal headquarters
Tuesday evening.

"I am satisfied that when all the evidence is produced, there will be a different complexion to the picture," Mr. Kenney said.
"Whether we like it or not, the war is being fought over minorities and their rights and we must protect minorities. I have confidence enough in Mr. King and his advisers to feel they will make as satisfactory an adjustment as humanly possible to the problems now confronting them and all of us. Mr. King may make mistakes, but I am satisfied no other man could have led Canada through such a crisis.
I am satisfied that what Mr.
King is doing is in the best interests of all the people of Canada and not in the interests of any one section."

NORTHERN TRIP

Mr. Kenney told his audience something of a trip he made last month to the ports of the Alaska panhandle and how anxious people there are for connections with northern British Columbia.
He said many people in Alaska want use of a road in northern B.C., so that they may have free access to the main highway leading to the east.

"We (in Alaska and northern B.C.) have a community of interests that is going to develop and grow," Mr. Kenney said.

The new minister said people in the northern section of the province have been isolated for many years, but now with an east-west highway he fears northern trade is going to Alberta and that southern B.C. may lose out. If this happens, he said, there is no one to blame
but southern B.C.

The Alaska panhandle, he said, is looking to Prince Rupert as a port of entry to the mainland of North America. Trade from the north, he said, will then go directly east and this portion of B.C. will lose out unless it is careful.

What British Columbia must have in the future, Mr. Kenney said, is "depopulation of big centres and decentralization of big business. The north, he said, must have more population, it has everything else."

In the future, Mr. Kenney said, tariffs will have to be abolished.
Walls of tariff, he said, have been detrimental to any country which has put them up. If people to the south can produce an article cheaper, then people here are entitled to it, he said.

"I think all people should be permitted to buy in the cheapest market," he said.
Racial prejudices, too, Mr.

Kenney said, will have to be broken down in the future and in this connection he said this province is facing a great problem in its Japanese question, a problem that is going to tax the ability and patience of all people.
B.C., he thought, should not, however, have to bear all the load in this regard.

B.C. ELECTION SEEN

Hon. Norman Whittaker,
Speaker of the Legislature and
M.L.A. for Saanich, said that it is altogether likely that the next

but a provincial general elec-speaking officially, for he had no government information, but that the next session of the B.C.

Legislature will be the fourth.

Clothing in Flames Man Jumps in Harbor

Condition of Mike Honcharuk, who Tuesday afternoon leaped into Inner Harbor to extinguish flames which enveloped his clothing, was said today at St. Joseph's Hospital to be good.

The British America Paint Co. Ltd. warehouseman, who lives at 1336 Grant, suffered severe burns to both hands and shock when paint and varnish on his clothing caught fire. He was pulled from the water by fellow workmen.

Pro Patria Branch Wants Conscription

A unanimous vote by members of the Pro Patria Branch, Canadian Legion, Tuesday night, reaffirmed their stand favoring conscription for overseas service. Also passed was a motion favoring the stand taken by Col. Ralston in withdrawing from the cabinet, and exposing the reinforcement situation as it exists.

Delegates to the District Council, meeting in the Naval Veterans' Branch Thursday evening, will convey the attitude of the Pro Patria Branch to the council.

Members deplored the attitude of the government in not bringing in conscription following the plebiscite two years ago, which favored such action. Hope was expressed that conscription would be brought in when Parliament reassembles on Nov. 22.

Sqdn. Ldr. Blenkinsop Hidden By Belgians Now Prisoner of War

Sqdn. Ldr. Edward Weyman (Ted) Blenkinsop, D.F.C., missing since April last, is reported to be safe, although believed to be a prisoner of war, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert W. Blenkinsop, 1076 Joan Crescent.

His plane, it appeared, was shot down about April 28 in operations over Belgium.

Blenkinsop was aided by a Belgian family who sheltered him until Aug. 11, when the Germans found him and took him away to Germany as a prisoner of war. The story of Blenkinsop's disappearance and capture was learned by his parents in a letter received from Driver E. H. Betts, R.A.S.C., from somewhere in Europe.

The letter in part reads: "We went through France into Belgium and it was in Belgium that we stopped one night. I went to a small country home to try and get some eggs. The people made me very welcome and asked me in. Over the fireplace I saw a photo of a young fellow. I asked who it was and they told me it was a photo of an R.A.F. man. As best they could, they told me it was about April 28 his plane was shot down near their home. I don't know what happened to the rest of the crew, but Sqdn. Ldr. Blenkinsop was not hurt much. These people took him in and hid him until Aug. 11 away from Jerry. It was on Aug. 11 that they came and found him and took him away to Germany, I guess. That is about all I can tell you, but I made sure that when he left their home he was very well. The people thought the world of him." Blenkinsop joined the R.C.A.F. in June, 1940.

In Police Court

Pleading guilty of wilful damage, Skipper John Allen Boden, R.C.N.R., was fined $50 and ordered to pay damages totaling $50.25 in city court today. He was arrested at 1.50 this morning by Constable Brooke Douglas, who said the skipper threw flower pots, smashing five windows and broke some dishes. He also dislodged a chlorination machine from its base.

Hearing of Charlie Irish, Harry James, Antonio Vila and Harold L. Green on a joint charge of being keepers of a gaming house was set for next Wednesday.

Bail of $25 was estreated when a man failed to answer an intoxication charge. Seven motorists paid a total of $30 in fines.

Beneficial Bugs Subject of Talk

"Beneficial Bugs" was the title of an illustrated lecture given to 60 members of the Victoria Natural History Society in the Provincial Library Tuesday night, by William Downes, Dominion entomologist.

"Only about half of 1 per cent of our insects are really injurious, the remainder being useful in some way or other. It is the overabundance of any bug that make it injurious," Mr. Downes said, adding that many bugs had become serious pests through interference by man, such as clearing land or growing crops better suited to certain types of insects.

He outlined groups of insects utilized beneficially in various ways to mankind, and said that in 1942 28,000,000 parasites were released in Canada to control various types of noxious insects. A film illustrating the method of propagation of beneficial parasites at a laboratory in Belleville, Ont., concluded the lecture.

J. W. Sutcliffe, 344 Berwick Street, brought to the Times today a four and a half pound Green Mountain potato which he grew in his James Bay Victory garden.

New Collection Mark Seen for City Water

Victoria is headed for the great collections ever recorded from its water department, Ald. J. A. Worthington, water board chairman, indicated today with release of collections to the end of last month.

At Oct. 31 the city had received $437,995, against $431,092 at the corresponding date last year. The increase at the end of last month amounted to $6,903, and indications of several heavy payments before the end of the year were seen.

Returns last year were the highest on record to that date. Consequently, maintenance of the increase shown during the first 10 months of this year virtually guaranteed a new mark.

B.C. Electric and Cities Conference Postponed

The meeting which Premier John Hart was to have held here tomorrow with the municipalities on the B.C. Electric question has been postponed to a later date, Mr. Hart said today.

Mayor Cornett of Vancouver, chairman of the municipalities' committee on the B.C. Electric, is not well and unable to come to Victoria at this time.

The 1944 pack of Alaska canned salmon will be about 20 per cent below 1943 because of the smaller run of fish due to severe winter conditions in the spawning streams several years ago that killed fish that would be mature adults now.

$57 Stolen From Home

Entering the home of H. Dack, 103 Cambridge, Tuesday night via an unlocked pantry window, a thief took a total of $57 in cash from two purses.

That of $30 from the cash register at the Speedway Service Station, 2301 Douglas, was reported to city police by Phil Foster.

W. Silver, Mount Tolmie post office, said his car had been stolen from Yates and Douglas. It was later recovered by city police.

Airman's Death Declared Accidental

A verdict of accidental death, resulting from injuries received when struck by a skidding bus at the Gordon Head Road and San Juan Avenue on Oct. 23, was returned by a coroner's jury investigating the death of P.O. Hugh Hobbittell, R.C.A.F., of Toronto, at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, today.

Maj. Roy Melville, army chaplain, and brother-in-law of the airman, whom he was accompanying on the night of the accident, said he and Hobbittell were waiting to take the Gordon Head bus at Gordon Head Road and San Juan Avenue.

"The bus was coming down the decline and as it approached us the brakes were applied. The bus skidded to the right, striking Hobbittell with the rear and right side and carried or threw him 30 feet," Maj. Melville said. "It was a wet night and very dark. The street was slippery and wet. It appeared to me that the driver did not see us standing at the corner. He was traveling down the road at a normal rate of speed."

Sqdn. Ldr. George MacKay, staff surgeon at Patricia Bay; Ronald Salmon, passenger in the bus; John Poulsen, passenger, and Police Sergeant Eric Elwell of Saanich, gave evidence.

William F. J. Gaskell, driver of the bus, said he saw the army chaplain, but at no time saw a second man at the bus stop, and added that when he went to stop the bus, it went into a skid. He said he did not know that Hobbittell was struck until after he had stopped the bus. Gaskell testified his speed was normal as he approached San Juan Avenue.

Woman Complainant Cross-Examined

Following lock-up of a fall asize jury overnight, the trial of LAC. Robert A. Davies, R.C.A.F., charged with rape, continued into its second day at 10.30 this morning as Stuart Henderson, defence counsel, continued cross-examination of the woman complainant.

Yesterday and today the woman, whose home is in Vancouver, repeated her story of meeting Davies in a beer parlor and, later in the evening, being attacked by him as they were on their way to a dance. He choked her into insensibility, she said.

Terrified of her life, but determined to see justice done, she said she had duped the airman into taking a cab, and immediately ordered the driver to go to the police station. There, she said, she had first wanted to charge the airman with attempted murder, but on seeing the condition of her clothes, had charged him with rape.

Jurymen sworn in Tuesday were: P. A. Fitzsimmons, foreman; William Tyson, A. G. Hill, W. D. Ellis, William Mader, G. J. Emery, E. L. Knowlton, Rudolf Olsen, R. H. MacAdam, Eric Badminton, W. H. Irvine, and C. M. Parrott.

New Provincial Park On Vancouver Island

Vancouver Island has a new class C provincial park, known as Kitty Coleman Beach.

It comprises 24 acres in the Comox district, including waterfront. Permission for it was given this week by provincial government order-in-council.

Other orders-in-council include the following: Appointment of Henry Clarke Wright of Port Alberni as a Justice of the Peace; appointment of Harold Edward Matthews, welfare officer of Surrey as a commissioner for taking affidavits, in place of Claude Hamilton Harvie; appointment of Hugh Norman Lidster, New Westminster and Edgar Stewart Robinson, Vancouver as members of the Public Library Commission for three years, from Dec. 1 next.

Red Cross at Funeral

Funeral service for Mrs. Stewart G. Clark, tireless worker in the interests of Red Cross, was held today.

Members of the Red Cross office, workroom and superfluity store attended. Since the beginning of the war, Mrs. Clark had devoted many hours to Red Cross work in all its various branches and was on the job every day at the women's workroom helping renovate garments for suffering people in many Allied countries.

Heavy Fighting Not Yet Near End, Says Churchill

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill, home from a tour of French battlefronts, told the House of Commons today that extremely heavy fighting "will certainly last for a good long time."

His statement was in reply to James Duncan, Conservative, who asked that men over 40 in "static" military stations be released from the army.

"I need hardly remind you that the static stations are necessary for the prosecution of the war," the Prime Minister replied. "Officers and men over 40 of low medical category who are employed there release officers and men for more active duty. In view of the present shortage of manpower I regret that the present arrangement for indefinite release from the forces cannot be altered."

Insistence by Mr. Duncan that the matter be reviewed in the light of new facts brought the statement from Mr. Churchill:

"The new fact that stares one in the face is that extremely heavy fighting is continuing week by week and will certainly last for a good long time."

Allies to Return Russian Prisoners

LONDON (CP) — Russia apparently has obtained Allied acquiescence to her demand for return of Soviet citizens rounded up in liberated Europe after forced service in the German army or Nazi labor battalions.

Ten thousand Soviet war prisoners and civilians already have arrived at Murmansk from Britain. A Foreign Office spokesman said thousands of others would be returned as transportation facilities become available.

The question of what to do with these Russians—especially those captured with German troops—was at one point the subject of a dispute between the Soviet and Britain.

Foreign Secretary Eden was understood to have protested that some of the Russian troops, fighting alongside the Germans, had offered some of the stiffest resistance the Allies had encountered.

Flier Gets D.F.C.

FO: William Russell Bennett, whose wife is residing in Toronto, has been awarded the D.F.C. It was announced today by the Western Air Command. He returned to Canada in October after being on active service overseas for 22 months as a navigator. He now is stationed at a west coast air base.

British Ships, Planes, Sink German Trawler

LONDON (CP-Reuters) — During a sweep off the Norwegian coast Tuesday, Wildcat aircraft, operating with ships of the Home Fleet, sank one armed enemy trawler in Trondheim fjord, and set another on fire, an Admiralty communiqué reported today.

The ship which was set on fire is believed to have been sunk. Wildcat planes bombed shore installations at Titran, off the entrance to the fjord, during the course of the sweep.

Good Loan Record in Victoria Shipyards

With the 7th Victory Loan campaign completed, the record of Victoria's shipyards in the drive is an enviable one according to reports from Victory Loan headquarters.

V.M.D. employees contributed $53,000 more than their quota of $180,500, and credit for this fine achievement is given to the 40 employees who acted as salesmen. A total of 96 per cent of the employees subscribed to the loan and this brings the total amount subscribed by V.M.D. employees in the seven loans to $1,759,050.

Yarrows is also well over the top in the drive and credit is given to the splendid response made by organized labor in uniting with the company to put over the loan. There was a good deal of competition between the different departments to see who would get over their quota first, the plumbers of both yards winning.

In the British Columbia Coast Steamship service 792 employees subscribed to the loan, compared with a total of 648 subscribers in the 6th loan. The amount subscribed was $78,500, which is 50 per cent over the objective.

In the race to win the special company pennant the Ss. Princess Alice came first with 140 per cent of quota, and the Princess Elizabeth was second with 103 per cent of objective.
